

A Song About Real Life

A golden cross is centered on a parchment-like background with a subtle mountain range silhouette. The cross is slightly faded and serves as a background element for the text.

The LORD is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life—of whom shall I be afraid?

Psalms 27:1 (NIV)

Warfare: I can choose my stronghold.

A golden cross is centered in the background of the text. The background has a textured, mottled appearance with shades of brown and gold. The text is white and uses a monospace-style font.

Though an army besiege
me, my heart will not fear; though war break
out against me, even then
will I be confident.

Psalms 27:3 (NIV)

A golden cross is centered on a textured, brownish-gold background. The cross has a slightly weathered appearance. The background has a mottled, painterly texture with variations in shades of brown and gold.

What, then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us? Romans 8:31

Worship: I can experience
the presence of God.

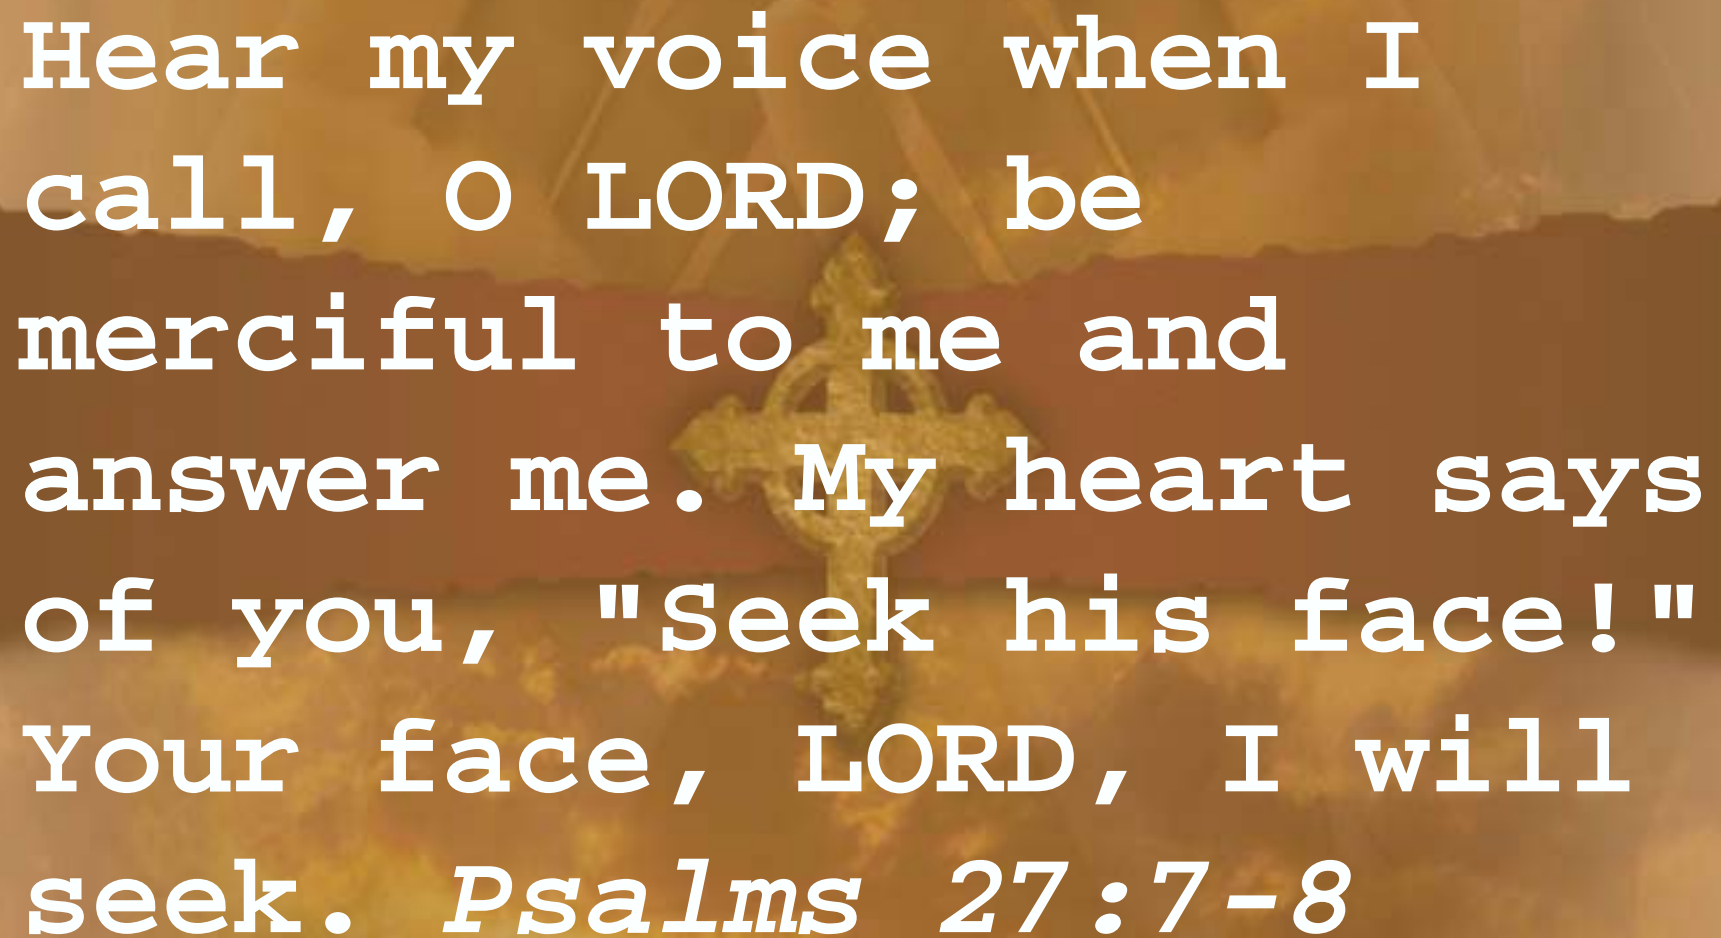

A golden cross is centered in the background of a sunset scene with mountains. The text is overlaid on this background.

One thing I ask of the LORD, this is what I seek: that I may dwell
in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life,
to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to seek
him in his temple.

Psalms 27:4 (NIV)

The image features a central golden cross with a circular top and a pointed bottom, set against a textured, golden-brown background. The background has a subtle, abstract pattern. The entire image is framed by a solid black bar at the top and another at the bottom. The text is overlaid on the cross and background.

Worry: I can share with God my deepest feelings.

Hear my voice when I call, O LORD; be merciful to me and answer me. My heart says
of you, "Seek his face!"
Your face, LORD, I will seek. Psalms 27:7-8

Do not hide your face
from me, do not turn your servant away in anger; you have been my helper. Do not reject me or forsake me, O God my Savior. Psalms 27:9

A golden anchor is centered on a textured, golden-brown background. A compass rose is visible behind the anchor. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, monospace-style font.

Waiting: I can have confidence even though
I'm not there yet.

I am still confident of this: I will see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

Psalms 27:13

The background features a golden cross centered on a textured, brownish-gold surface. A faint silhouette of a person in a prayerful pose is visible behind the cross. The overall color palette is warm and monochromatic, with black bars at the top and bottom.

Wait for the LORD; be strong and take heart
and wait for the LORD.
Psalms 27:14 (NIV)
